2023 ANNUAL SCHOLARSHIP GUIDELINES

The Texas Deer Association (TDA) proudly supports Texas students in helping to achieve their educational goals with the awarding of scholarships, on an annual basis, to deserving young Texans. The TDA Scholarship Committee uses a scoring system, while carefully reviewing each submitted Application Packet, to select the TDA scholarship recipients.

ELIGIBILITY

- Nominated by a TDA member in good standing;
- A candidate for graduation at an accredited high school, or a student currently enrolled in college, including graduate students;
- Minimum overall GPA of 3.0.

APPLICATION PACKET

The TDA Scholarship Committee will review and consider all completed applications. Applications are considered complete if submitted by the deadline, June 23, 2023, with the following items:

- 2023 Annual Scholarship Application
- Resume
- Cover Letter – communicating your interests, achievements, motivations, and strengths
- Two (2) Letters of Recommendation from:
 1. Nominating TDA Member
 2. Teacher or a past/present employer
- Unopened official high school transcript or current college transcript
- Essay consisting of up to 1,500 words on the importance of the TDA in helping to promote conservation and improving the quality of deer herds and hunting in Texas.

IMPORTANT DATES

June 23, 2023

Completed applications must be received at the TDA office by mail or email.

July 2023

TDA Scholarship Committee will review application packets and scholarship recipients will be notified.

August 19, 2023

Scholarship recipients will be honored at the TDA Annual Convention. More information to follow.

November 3, 2023

To receive a scholarship check, the scholarship recipient must obtain an official Verification of Enrollment (VOE) from their school, after the Fall 2023 census date and mail or email to the TDA office by November 3, 2023. Upon receipt of this information, a scholarship check will be mailed to the recipient's address on the application. If the VOE is not received by this deadline, the scholarship award will be forfeited.
